Necessity the Mother of Invention.

THE LIVE, PROGRESSIVE AND PERSEVERING

PEOPLE'S STORE

Scores Another Triumphant Success in the Application of Science and Inventive Genius to Commercial Enterprise.

No truer saying ever fell from mortal lips than that "Time is money." We have looked over the business results of our year so far the past week with feelings indescribable. The time of the patron, the time of the employer and the time of the employee is money. To say naught of the inconvenience and vexation it occasioned. We determined that this should be remedied, and devoted ourselves actively and unceasingly to the task of solving the problem. The cash system in use failed to carry parcels, and we were of the opinion that system was at fault. A model of such system was sent it on to the Patent Office at Washington, asking for a patent, only to discover that the invention we sought had been applied for before by another and granted. The consequent delay in the Patent Office, as compensation for our labor and midnight oil spent in its creation and perfection was "That though differing in description and adaptation of the principle involved is the same, and we cannot for a patent is therefor denied."

Immediately thereafter we sought out the prior inventor, and made arrangements to have "our lost system" carried into effect, in Mr. Meagher's elevated Cash and Parcel Railway, which went into operation, and successfully transacted our business in carrying all our parcels and cash to the Packing Department, situate on a gallery in the rear of the main building.

It takes but a second to transmit the parcel. The change is made and the parcel wrapped up at the same time, and returned to the customer in half the time formerly took to call a cash boy. It is noiseless, ever ready and the most expeditious device ever invented in saving time to patrons and the house, and a waste of lungs to the clerical force.

How long will it be before our example will be aped by others, who guide their entire business and gather their little stock of brains by aping us?

How long before those who wait until our experiment proves a success will ape us and profit by our enterprise and grit?

How long ere some unscrupulous vendor will have the nerve and gall to say that we forestalled his thoughts and acts.

The People's Store has no time for slumber. It is ever foremost in relieving the hard necessities entailed on labor. It is first in consulting the interests, wishes and convenience of its patrons.

It leads in the encouragement and application of all methods and means that lessen the labors of its employees and advance the interests of its patrons.

The Patent Office copy of the drawings of the Railway System can be seen by those desirous of our store.

The one in operation is highly useful and instructive, and we extend an invitation to all interested in its workings to come and inspect it.

Our center tables are now laden with Holiday Goods, more by way of sample than stock, to give the public an idea of what may be expected when we thoroughly open our mammoth Basement Salesroom and give you a life-sized inspection of Santa Claus.

Our Toy and Holiday Goods Department will be a feast for the little folks, and we expect to open it about the 5th of December.

PEOPLE are beginning to look even longingly for a December shower. That's the way of the world; when we had rain we wanted sunshine, and now, with sunshine, we begin to wish for rain again.

THE Democrats of Ohio are making a desperate effort to down John Sherman. As this industrious body has once committed hari-kari this season, it is probable that it will repeat that act with greater neatness and dispatch than ever. John Sherman will be his own successor in the Senate.

THE Pocksmithian Herald, with a precious pretence of virtue and a sorrowful drop, affectation of dignity, undertakes to maintain that a TIMES correspondent, in criticising a somewhat notorious Democratic candidate for office, indulged in "indelicate" language, etc., etc. Well, here is gall! A newspaper which published the infamous Gregory deposition, reeking with filth unutterable—a thing which the Los Angeles Herald did with great gusto, and whose editor then tried to wriggle out of it under oath—such a paper would do well to sing low on the subject of "indelicacy" in the use of published language. In the very issue containing this hypocritical criticism, the Herald publishes matter which is unfit to be laid before respectable people, "more particularly women and children." There are some things that the Herald editor cannot "swear away."

WHO will be called by Governor Stoneman to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Associate Justice Ross? This is a question of especial interest in Southern California, from whence Judge Ross hails, and which section may therefore rightfully claim to be entitled to furnish his successor. We have in Los Angeles and other parts of the south country some beautiful Republican judicial timber, but of course we cannot hope that His Excellency will exhibit that degree of executive level-headedness which would be shown by his selection of a Republican to fill Justice Ross's vacant seat. In this state of the case we will have to accept the next best thing—a clean and capable Democrat, if such can be hit upon. Byron Waters, of San Bernardino, is a man who has friends for the vacant position, and they are, we learn, already urging his claims upon the Governor. His reputation for character and ability is above the average, and Mr. Waters would doubtless make a good Supreme Judge.

THAT demoralized and desperate Democratic candidate, G. Butler Griffin, has committed the folly of "rushing into print." He would be better off, both politically and personally, had he never appended his malodorous name to that very weak card which he published in yesterday's Herald. He makes a cunning yet a transparent attempt to shift the issue from himself, where it belongs, and throw dust in the eyes of the voters; but intelligent and respectable voters will not be blinded by any such weak devices; they are watching G. Butler, and will "spot" him on election day, to his sore discomfiture. Of all the various and sundry damaging charges brought against him since his nomination, he has denied but one; thus by implication confessing judgment as to the remainder. This is significant. Mr. Griffin labors to make a personal issue with the editor of the TIMES. It won't do, Mr. Griffin.

His laborious effort goes for naught. There are some things, however, that he has yet to learn. He has much to say and insinuate about "courtesy," "discourtesy," the alleged manner of his reception in the TIMES office, etc., etc. Know, then, that a gentleman always tells the truth and bears himself in a seemly and self-respecting manner on all occasions. [Mr. Griffin does not tell the truth about what took place at his interview with the editor of the TIMES on Thursday evening, and he does not always bear himself in a seemly, dignified and self-respecting manner. He sometimes falls down.

LOGAN DECLINES

The Nomination for President of the Senate,

TENDERED HIM BY THE REPUBLICANS.

His Reasons for Refusing to Serve—Pacific Coast Appointments and Other Notes From the Capital.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The caucus of Republican Senators met promptly at 12 o'clock to-day, Senator Sherman in the chair, and proceeded at once to consider the question of the election of a President pro tem. of the Senate, made necessary by the death of Vice President Hendricks. Senator Edmunds stated that in the summer of 1884 when the Republicans of the nation in their convention nominated General Logan for Vice President he (Edmunds) had thought it right toward General Logan and toward the party that he should retire from the Presidency of the Senate, and that General Logan should preside in his place, and as they all remembered, he had communicated that opinion and desire to the Republicans in a formal way, but it was thought at that time that the change would not be made, especially as General Logan did not wish it to be made. At the last Presidential election General Logan had received, it is believed, the votes of all Republicans who had an opportunity to vote, and came very nearly being the choice of the people for the office of Vice President, which would have made him ex officio President of the Senate, and would, under the law, have charged him with the duty of carrying on the government in case of any disability of the President of the United States until an election could be had. In this state of things he thought it right that the Republican Senators should renew that expression of confidence in General Logan by nominating him for President of the Senate, and he accordingly moved that General Logan be nominated by acclamation.

Several Senators spoke briefly in favor of the nomination, and the question was put and agreed to unanimously.

The Chairman announced the unanimous nomination of John A. Logan as the Republican candidate for President pro tem. of the Senate.

GENERAL LOGAN DECLINES.

General Logan arose, and said: "Mr. Chairman, from the depths of my heart I thank the Republican Senators for the confidence they repose in me, as expressed by the nomination just tendered me by acclamation for the position of temporary presiding officer of the Senate. I not only thank the members, but the people of the whole country, for the desire they seem to feel that I should be given this very honorable position. I was, however, sir, the nominee of the Republican party for election. I was not elected on that nomination. I then thanked the Republican party and through the Senators present I again return to the representative of the country my grateful acknowledgements. If I thought they could be served, or my constituents and my country, by accepting the position, I would most unhesitatingly do so and perform the duties to the best of my ability. I do not so think, and am sure that I can by work necessary to be performed on committees, and otherwise do more that may be useful by remaining in my present position. In fact, Mr. Chairman, the position is held to be, by our Sixteenth Head, that I could perform the duties in a more satisfactory manner than other Senators, which I do not, I suppose, the necessity for me to occupy the chair in preference to any of my brother Senators. The Senate has at all times been presided over in the most satisfactory manner since I have had the honor to be one of its members, and doubtless will be so again by any one that may be selected. I am ready to assist in elevating one who may be selected, and now, my brother Senators, I wish you to know that I fully appreciate your kindness and the great compliment paid me, but you must allow me to say that after carefully considering the matter I feel that I ought to decline this nomination. I now most respectfully do so.

After some remarks made by several Senators in deprecation of the declination of General Logan, that gentleman said that he had arrived at the conclusion expressed by him after full deliberation, and wished it considered final.

On motion the injunction of secrecy was removed from the proceedings, and the caucus adjourned until 12 o'clock to-morrow.

A DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS CALLED.

Senator Beck, chairman of the Democratic caucus of Senators, has issued a call for a conference, to take place at 12 o'clock to-morrow in the Conference Committee room of the Senate. The object or purpose of the meeting is to nominate a Democratic candidate for the temporary presidency of the Senate.

ALLISON NOT AMBITIOUS.

Senator Allison, who has been named as a possible President pro tem. of the Senate, authorizes the statement that he is not a candidate for the place, and should decline if it were tendered him, believing that he could not discharge the duties of the position without resigning the chairmanship of the Committee on Appropriations, which he prefers to retain.

PACIFIC COAST APPOINTMENTS.

The Postmaster-General to-day appointed the following fourth class postmasters for California: Antioch, David P. Mahon; West Berkeley, Miss Catherine Tate.

W. F. Towne has been appointed postmaster at Phœnix, Oregon.

The President to-day appointed Thomas Hamilton, of Washington Territory, to be United States Marshal for that Territory; William Finnin, to be Surveyor of Customs at San Francisco; James T. Tucker, to be Assistant Appraiser of Merchandise at San Francisco.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

The Railway and Silver Questions—Financial Matters.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 4.—Slow progress is being made in securing an agreement between the government and the railway companies. There is a bill now before the Congress to require the railway companies to complete their line within five years, the goverment to fund the outstanding subsidy in a loan at four per cent.

The bill providing for free banking has been unanimously referred to the Finance Commitie of Congress. This is taken to mean the defeat of the National Bank in its endeavor to sustain itself as the only legal bank of issue.

The silver question is still agitating the press, and great interest is taken in President Cleveland's forthcoming message.

The Treasury cash balance for November is less than $30,000.

Facilitating Trade with Mexico.

EL PASO, TEX., Dec. 4.—The railroad freight agents closed their meeting here to-day. The meeting resulted in changes that will greatly facilitate the trade of American cities with points in Mexico. Merchants in any city in this country will, hereafter, be able to secure through quotations to points in Mexico on the Mexican Central railroad. This will be of incalculable advantage, for heretofore all goods had to be billed to El Paso, and, after suffering serious delay, were re-forwarded, local rates on the Central being first demanded. Local rates on the Mexican Central were not changed as expected, but a reduction to El Paso, ranging from fifty cents on the hundred pounds for freight of the first class, to thirty cents for goods of the lowest, was made.

Still Hankering After Tonquin.

PARIS, Dec. 4.—The Chamber of Commerce to-day unanimously resolved that the commercial interests of France require the occupation of Tonquin as far as the Chinese frontier.

Honored by Queen Victoria.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—At Windsor Castle to-day Queen Victoria personally invested Lady Randolph Churchill with the insignia of the Imperial Order of the Crown of India.

SAN FRANCISCO.

The Temperance Cause—Notes from the Metropolis.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—John B. Finch, Right Worthy Grand Templar and supreme head of the Order in the world, will lecture to-night at Metropolitan Temple. In a reception tendered him last night he made an address in which he referred to the predictions made during the latter part of 1884, that the temperance movement had been killed or had received a serious set-back in the elections of that year, and stated that if it was dead it was the liveliest corpse he had ever seen. He said that from January 1, 1885, to November 1, 1885, more temperance meetings had been held than ever before, and from January 1st to June 1st more temperance legislation had been effected than in any preceding five years. In that time seven States had passed prohibitory laws. The address was well received and frequently applauded.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL ASSOCIATION.

A dispatch has been received stating that it was decided by telegraphic vote to hold the Transcontinental Association at Monterey, Cal., and not at New York, as before decided. The meeting takes place on the 14th.

THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY.

The United States Grand Jury will submit their report to Judge Hoffman, United States District Judge, to-morrow. The Grand Jury has for nearly two months past been engaged in investigating several matters, the most prominent of which was the Chinese custom-house frauds. Notwithstanding the long time devoted to the investigation of this matter, it is stated to-night that no indictment had been made.

GENERAL SHALER.

An Indictment Against Him for Perjury.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—General Shaler neglected to avail himself of the opportunity afforded him by the District Attorney, to appear before the Grand Jury. Ex-Mayor Edson appeared before that body, however, in response to a subpœna, and was before them for some little time. Soon after his departure the Grand Jury entered the court room and handed up a batch of indictments embracing one against General Shaler. The indictment charges that while General Shaler was a member of the Armory Commission of this city he used the trust imposed on him to betray the city by accepting a bribe from Monmouth B. Wilson, in the sale of a site for the Eighth Regiment Armory. The second count charges that General Shaler agreed to receive from Wilson certain values, to-wit: A release from considerable trouble for years past then due by him to the Hackensack Savings Bank for $9000, to influence Shaler's vote as a member of the armory board. The third count charges that this agreement was carried out. Monmouth B. Wilson, on whose testimony the chief indictment was found, has furnished bail for his appearance as a witness.

DANGERS OF THE DEEP.

The Steamer San Pedro's Mishap—Wrecked on a Pile of Lumber.

PORT TOWNSEND, Dec. 4.—The steamer San Pedro, which left San Francisco on Tuesday last for Tacoma, W. T., ran onto a sandspit in Scow bay, near Port Townsend, shortly after midnight last night. The vessel was going at nearly full speed at the time of the accident. She lies in sheltered water. After pumping out the water ballast, a tugboat and the United States revenue cutter Wolcott pulled at her for several hours without avail. The tide will be higher in the next few days, when she will probably get afloat. She is in no danger.

A BRITISH BARK WRECKED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The British bark Marquis of Lorne arrived from Hong Kong this evening. She reports that she spoke just off Captain Hammond, and eleven of the crew of the British ship Alibala on October 25th. The Alibala was wrecked during a typhoon off Lew Chew Island, October 14th, on a voyage from Hastings Mills, Burrard Inlet, British Columbia, to Shanghai, and lost ten men. She has previously been reported abandoned at sea.

CASES FOR PASTEUR.

Six Children Bitten by a Rabid Dog in Newark, N. J.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Six children were bitten by a mad dog in Newark, N. J., and several dogs were also bitten by the same brute, and the people are terribly excited. A local doctor fans the flame by publishing a card advising the parents of the bitten children to send the little ones to France, to be healed by Pasteur, and by advising public subscription for the transportation of those whose parents cannot afford the expense. He says in his card that ordinarily the effect of the bite of a rabid dog does not show itself in less than two months; that in two weeks the children who were attacked can be put in Pasteur's hands, and that it is the duty of the humane public to contribute to help to save the lives of those who are powerless to help themselves. It is claimed that arrangements are already complete for the sending of two of the children to Paris.

CREMATION.

The New Crematory Now Forth Formally Opened.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The interesting apparatus at the crematory at Mount Olivet has been completed, and the building was formally opened this afternoon, when the body of Eugene Lievre was placed in the retort for incineration. Lievre died about a month ago, and his body has been in a vault in Greenwood the cemetery since. Before death he asked to be the first one cremated. The Building Committee decided to have the opening on Saturday, but a telegram was received from Boston requesting the cremation of a corpse from that city on that day, and that made a change of date necessary. Admission to the building to-day was by ticket only. About one hundred invitations were issued.

Fort Bowie Threatened by Apaches.

TOMBSTONE, A. T., Dec. 4.—William Herring, a prominent attorney of this city, has just returned from the vicinity of Fort Bowie. He reports that the military at the fort fear an attack of hostile Apaches on the fort, with the purpose of rescuing their squaws who are prisoners there, and this prevents a larger force from being sent out from the fort in pursuit of the hostiles. He also reports that the Indians have raided Story's and McGinnis's ranches near Fort Bowie.

The Feather-Weight Championship.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Jack Farrell and George Williams, feather-weight pugilists, fought eight good rounds in Westchester county yesterday morning for a purse of $500 and the feather-weight championship of America. Sporting men had been talking of the fight for two months past, and tickets for it were sold only to such persons as were known to be trustworthy. After seven sharp rounds, in all of which Farrell did the best work, the eighth and final round commenced, and Williams was knocked out.

Two Miners Killed.

SEATTLE, W. T., Dec. 4.—While two miners, David Morgan and W. J. Lewis, were in a car ascending the incline at the Coal Creek mines this morning, an empty car standing at the head of the incline broke from its fastenings and rushed down upon the ascending car. A collision occurred about half way up the incline, and both men were instantly killed. Lewis leaves a wife and seven children. Morgan was unmarried.

A Corner-Stone Laid.

FRESNO, Cal. Dec. 4.—The corner-stone of the new Masonic temple was laid to-day with imposing ceremonies by Acting Grand Master G. W. Recker, of Merced, assisted by Fresno Lodge 247, F. and A. M., and members of the fraternity from abroad. This afternoon business was entirely suspended and the stores closed.

OVER THE BORDER.

Seattle Chinamen Sent into British Columbia,

BY AN UNITED STATES JUDGE'S ORDER.

The English Authorities Protest in Vain Against Receiving the Heathen—Marysville's Chinese Nuisance.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

SEATTLE, W. T., Dec. 4.—The dispute regarding the disposition of the twenty-five Chinamen smuggled from British Columbia was brought to a close yesterday by a summary action on the part of the United States authorities. The case has excited wide attention, owing to the fact that the British authorities refused to receive them. Judge Green instructed United States Marshal George to escort them across the boundary line and leave them in British Columbia without regard to the protest of the British Columbian authorities. This was done, and they were turned loose there, having previously been supplied with provisions for several days. The heathens started at once for New Westminster.

SANTA ANA VALLEY BRIEFS.

Among the pleasant memories of Thanksgiving Day at Santa Ana which will long endure, is that of the elaborate dinner given by the ladies of the Christian Church, who vied with each other to make it pleasant for all their friends, whose names are legion, and to rake in the shekels in the name of sweet charity. The dinner gave evidence of fair woman's attention, and many persons, in spite of the muddy roads, came from miles around to feast their Thanksgiving appetite, which they did right royally. A supper followed the dinner, in Good Templars' Hall, and a delightful entertainment in the evening completed the festivities of this "day that comes but once a year."

The ladies who make up this church are: Mesdames Humphreys, Abbott, Freeman, Tucker, Mosebaugh, Greenleaf, Fryer, Chilton, Ward, Hardin, Dist, Williams, Morse, Buckingham, Roper, Neill, Kerns, Spurgeon, Humphreys and Miss Jennie Humphreys.

Last Sunday night, the Sunday school of the Baptist church gave a very pleasant concert to a crowded house. This Sunday school observed that day as "Bible Day," and contributed $30 to aid in publishing Bibles.

MRS. J. C. Galloway, of Tustin, who was taken to Los Angeles for medical treatment, died there, on Sunday, November 29th. Her remains were brought here and interred in the Santa Ana Cemetery.

MRS. Ann Stevens, of Compton, (whose sons have leased land on the San Joaquin ranch) came to visit her sons, near Tustin, with a view to benefiting her rather delicate health; but a stroke of paralysis took her away quite unexpectedly. She was a lovely family of children, and some quite small. The funeral was a touching one, and not a dry eye looked on while a sweet little girl screamed for her "poor mamma, in the cold ground."

The main topic of conversation on all sides is the organization of the Orange-growers' Protective Union, which promises to absorb every fruit-grower of this valley. Self-preservation is the first law of nature, and it certainly lies in a compact organization, so far as the fruit-growers are concerned. What is paid to middle men would make a handsome dividend, if we say nothing of the loss which "would not rot" if an owner's eye was looking at it; sabe?

The Santa Ana boys are somewhat wrathy towards the members of the Athletic Baseball Club of Los Angeles. The latter, after promising to come and play the Santa Ana boys, on their own ground, failed to put in an appearance, and only notified the Santa Ana boys of the fact by telegraph on the day preceding the day of the game. Come, boys, that will never do. Wake up.

Among the deserving applicants for admission into the Soldiers' Home at Los Cuilen, of Santa Ana, a veteran of Company F, Twentieth Regiment Indiana Volunteers, deserves the first mention. He served twenty-six battles during the war. He is a sign and carriage painter by trade; but is prostrated by nervousness, so that he can scarcely get about, to say nothing of pursuing his calling. He is an applicant also for a pension from the government, but there is as much red tape that he might starve awaiting relief from that source. Had he made application a few years ago, before the passage of the last act, he would have secured a handsome sum as back pension, but this he neglected. He is now assisted by the members of Sedgwick Post No. 17, G. A. R., and by the Sedgwick Woman's Relief Corps 17, both of which organizations are urging his nomination for the Soldiers' Home. It is a burning shame that in a country like ours, a soldier who lost his health in fighting our battles should have to stand cap in hand, and go from pillar to post for relief.

The contract for building the bridge across the Santiago Creek, between Santa Ana and Orange, has been let to Mr. Ferguson. The price is $2,550. The ordinance letting the contract was passed on Saturday, Nov. 28th, and the District Attorney was instructed to draw up the contract, which must be signed. The prospects are that the work will be begun at once, to which your correspondent joins the entire population of this section in saying: "Amen!"

In every part of the valley are to be met stray tourists that are exploring this vine clad region, looking for a soft spot whereupon to locate and help develop the valley. Needless to say that enough of interest can be shown them to induce them to remain.

It is a mistake not to wish newcomers to examine every locality before fixing upon a place to locate. If this valley affords the best inducements—of which there can be little doubt—they will come back, have no fear.

A huge squash, weighing 271 pounds, lies on the sidewalk in front of the store of Bundy & McFadden, in Santa Ana. Tell that to an Eastern man and he'll tell you "that's another California yarn;" but it is a fact that the squash is there and that it weighs 271 pounds.

Your correspondent passed a pumpkin field the other day, about two miles southeast of Santa Ana, where the pumpkins were so thick for several acres that a person could step from pumpkin to pumpkin and cross the field without stepping upon the ground. And some of them weighed over 200 pounds—many of them. We did not take many to load a wagon. They were being hauled away to be fed to stock. Tell that to a Yankee and he'll swear you are lying. But this is true.

Your correspondent was shown a dozen apples, grown on the land of W. A. Beckett, near Garden Grove, which weighed 13¾ pounds. They were of the Pearmain variety. How is this for all-round beds that will not grow fruit?

The many "old baches" and old widowers who used to run with Bob Dibble, of Santa Ana, will mourn the loss of that genial companion. He has jumped off the bridge. His marriage notice appears in another column. J. C. G.

SAN JACINTO.

The Second Town in San Diego County.

The new town of San Jacinto, in San Diego county, scarcely more than two years old, has already attained the second position in that county. It is situated on the San Jacinto river, 18 miles east of Riverside, the same distance from Pinacate station on the California Southern Railroad, and 12 miles from San Gorgonio station on the Southern Pacific. Its population has already reached 800 souls, and is steadily growing. Building has been active, and a good class of structures are going up. The town has a $5000 brick schoolhouse, a $2000 brick church, eleven stores, two storerooms and a number of wooden ones, eight or ten brick residences, costing from $1200 to $5000 each, and many good frame buildings, and a $35,000 hotel is on the way. Among the active business men of the place is John Ryan (formerly a merchant of Fremont, Ohio), who is building a brick storeroom for a furniture depot. He supplies all the country round about.

There are in San Jacinto two saw mills, one sash factory, forty-two artesian wells, and the water of the hot springs is piped into bath-houses now used by everybody. San Jacinto is, fortunately, situated in a timber country, where fire-wood is free to everyone who will haul it to his own door. The soil is good, and as the settlement is in the artesian belt, where irrigation is practicable, success is achieved in the rearing of crops.

A considerable land purchase, amounting to between 700 and 800 acres, was made last week by M. G. McKoon and others, at the rate of about $27 per acre. The land lies along the San Jacinto river, and is designed for the establishment of an American blooded-stock farm.

San Jacinto is going right ahead.

Big Strike of Oil.

It is reported that a big strike of petroleum was made this week in the Puente fields by Rowland & Lacy. They pumped from their new well 148 barrels of petroleum in two days, and their tanks being all filled, they were obliged to temporarily give over operations. This strike is one of the most valuable ever made in the county.

SANTA ANA VALLEY.

Friendly Advice to the Enemies of Progress—Brief Notes.

Correspondence of The Times.]

SANTA ANA, Dec. 3.—While it has been the pleasure of your correspondent to study the interests of the Santa Ana valley, and to do all in his power to represent these varied interests, through the columns of the DAILY TIMES and the WEEKLY MIRROR; and while it is very gratifying to note the many expressions of thankfulness showered upon the management, for these humble efforts to build up a country so deserving, there is something to be said on the other side of the question. When the causes that retard the growth of this country are sought, why don't the good people who lend us a helping hand—those who appreciate our efforts—also help to show up the few boors who have found their way among them, like black sheep in every flock? Politeness is the cheapest commodity under the sun, and those "illustrious things" who, if a stranger steps upon their premises, with a view of ascertaining what improvements have been made during the past year, and noting them, for the benefit of the entire community, assume an air of speaking to a servant, and give curt and discourteous replies.

These remarks, respectfully printed, will, it is to be hoped, be heeded by those whom the cap fits, and appreciated by all the good people who spare no pains in trying to please new-comers, instead of trying to drive them away, "dog-in-the manger" style.

SANTA ANA VALLEY BRIEFS.

Among the pleasant memories of Thanksgiving Day at Santa Ana which will long endure, is that of the elaborate dinner given by the ladies of the Christian Church, who vied with each other to make it pleasant for all their friends, whose names are legion, and to rake in the shekels in the name of sweet charity. The dinner gave evidence of fair woman's attention, and many persons, in spite of the muddy roads, came from miles around to feast their Thanksgiving appetite, which they did right royally. A supper followed the dinner, in Good Templars' Hall, and a delightful entertainment in the evening completed the festivities of this "day that comes but once a year."

The ladies who make up this church are: Mesdames Humphreys, Abbott, Freeman, Tucker, Mosebaugh, Greenleaf, Fryer, Chilton, Ward, Hardin, Dist, Williams, Morse, Buckingham, Roper, Neill, Kerns, Spurgeon, Humphreys and Miss Jennie Humphreys.

Last Sunday night, the Sunday school of the Baptist church gave a very pleasant concert to a crowded house. This Sunday school observed that day as "Bible Day," and contributed $30 to aid in publishing Bibles.

MRS. J. C. Galloway, of Tustin, who was taken to Los Angeles for medical treatment, died there, on Sunday, November 29th. Her remains were brought here and interred in the Santa Ana Cemetery.

Mrs. Ann Stevens, of Compton, (whose sons have leased land on the San Joaquin ranch) came to visit her sons, near Tustin, with a view to benefiting her rather delicate health; but a stroke of paralysis took her away quite unexpectedly. She was a lovely family of children, and some quite small. The funeral was a touching one, and not a dry eye looked on while a sweet little girl screamed for her "poor mamma, in the cold ground."

The main topic of conversation on all sides is the organization of the Orange-growers' Protective Union, which promises to absorb every fruit-grower of this valley. Self-preservation is the first law of nature, and it certainly lies in a compact organization, so far as the fruit-growers are concerned. What is paid to middle men would make a handsome dividend, if we say nothing of the loss which "would not rot" if an owner's eye was looking at it; sabe?

The Santa Ana boys are somewhat wrathy towards the members of the Athletic Baseball Club of Los Angeles. The latter, after promising to come and play the Santa Ana boys, on their own ground, failed to put in an appearance, and only notified the Santa Ana boys of the fact by telegraph on the day preceding the day of the game. Come, boys, that will never do. Wake up.

Among the deserving applicants for admission into the Soldiers' Home at Los Cuilen, of Santa Ana, a veteran of Company F, Twentieth Regiment Indiana Volunteers, deserves the first mention. He served twenty-six battles during the war. He is a sign and carriage painter by trade; but is prostrated by nervousness, so that he can scarcely get about, to say nothing of pursuing his calling. He is an applicant also for a pension from the government, but there is as much red tape that he might starve awaiting relief from that source. Had he made application a few years ago, before the passage of the last act, he would have secured a handsome sum as back pension, but this he neglected. He is now assisted by the members of Sedgwick Post No. 17, G. A. R., and by the Sedgwick Woman's Relief Corps 17, both of which organizations are urging his nomination for the Soldiers' Home. It is a burning shame that in a country like ours, a soldier who lost his health in fighting our battles should have to stand cap in hand, and go from pillar to post for relief.

The contract for building the bridge across the Santiago Creek, between Santa Ana and Orange, has been let to Mr. Ferguson. The price is $2,550. The ordinance letting the contract was passed on Saturday, Nov. 28th, and the District Attorney was instructed to draw up the contract, which must be signed. The prospects are that the work will be begun at once, to which your correspondent joins the entire population of this section in saying: "Amen!"

In every part of the valley are to be met stray tourists that are exploring this vine clad region, looking for a soft spot whereupon to locate and help develop the valley. Needless to say that enough of interest can be shown them to induce them to remain.

It is a mistake not to wish newcomers to examine every locality before fixing upon a place to locate. If this valley affords the best inducements—of which there can be little doubt—they will come back, have no fear.

A huge squash, weighing 271 pounds, lies on the sidewalk in front of the store of Bundy & McFadden, in Santa Ana. Tell that to an Eastern man and he'll tell you "that's another California yarn;" but it is a fact that the squash is there and that it weighs 271 pounds.

Your correspondent passed a pumpkin field the other day, about two miles southeast of Santa Ana, where the pumpkins were so thick for several acres that a person could step from pumpkin to pumpkin and cross the field without stepping upon the ground. And some of them weighed over 200 pounds—many of them. We did not take many to load a wagon. They were being hauled away to be fed to stock. Tell that to a Yankee and he'll swear you are lying. But this is true.

Your correspondent was shown a dozen apples, grown on the land of W. A. Beckett, near Garden Grove, which weighed 13¾ pounds. They were of the Pearmain variety. How is this for all-round beds that will not grow fruit?

The many "old baches" and old widowers who used to run with Bob Dibble, of Santa Ana, will mourn the loss of that genial companion. He has jumped off the bridge. His marriage notice appears in another column. J. C. G.

Ninth Volume—Fifth Year.

The LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES has entered upon the fifth year of its life. Started on the 4th day of December, 1881, it has from the first moved steadily forward on the road to prosperity, strength and permanency. It has enjoyed, in a marked degree, the confidence of the people of Los Angeles and Southern California, in whose service it is published. Its patronage has increased from small beginnings to dimensions of which its conductors have a right to be proud. It has been pushed by its partial patrons into making four enlargements, its circulation has more than trebled within the last three years, and the general bulk of the establishment's business has increased in like ratio. For all of which the publishers are grateful, and in return promise better work and a better paper in the future. New features and other improvements will be introduced as fast as business will justify. We shall always aim to keep in the advance.

Special Announcement.

The TIMES has great satisfaction in announcing to its readers the following new, original, special and exclusive features, which will be introduced within a few days:

"War Stories, by Land and Sea,"

EDITED BY A. A. HAYES.

A Series of Reminiscences of the Civil War, exciting, interesting, unusual, thrilling or scout.

These stories will consist of the most picturesque and interesting material that can be collected from officers of high rank in both armies, as well as thrilling stories of personal adventure by private soldiers. The matter, while historical and true, will appear in the form of personal narratives. The first article of the series will be published December 13:

"LINCOLN AND TEXAS." By A. A. Hayes.

This article relates a curious and most striking piece of secret history. It details the course of affairs in TEXAS during the war, which led to the conception, by President Lincoln, of a remarkable plan for detaching this State from the Confederacy; the steps taken by him to carry it out; the secret meeting of eminent Generals of both Union and Confederate armies, and the complete success of the negotiations up to the point when word came that General Sherman's progress made it desirable to suspend them. Several distinguished Generals on both sides now living were concerned. These facts are historical and authentic, and are now narrated for the first time. Their publication will create a great sensation both North and South.

December 20—

"THE MUTINY ON THE OCEAN QUEEN."

By Admiral Ammen.

December 21—

"THE CAPTURE OF THE YACHT AMERICA."

By Rear Admiral Thomas H. Stevens.

Other articles will be announced for following weeks, and the whole series will also appear in the WEEKLY MIRROR. Subscribe now for either paper, and secure this most interesting mass of war literature.

City Engineer.

TRIFLES OF THE TIMES.

O, BUTLER BOSH.
When candidates for office sock,
It is indeed surprising
How very quick you see them change—
From vice to virtue rising.

They prate of goodness and of truth,
Of Democratic freedom;
Of faults they have not left enough
For wrong to go to seed on.

They live but for the public good,
They're servants of the people,
And O! the promises they make
Would fill both church and steeple.

SUMMONING THE DOCTOR.

A Family Quarrel.

ONE DEMOCRAT VERSUS ANOTHER DEMOCRAT.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: The individual styling himself "A Democrat" under various articles in your paper, has seen best to attack me, and will no doubt do so until election day, evidently for no other purpose than to cultivate prejudice.

I am very loath, Mr. Editor, to become notorious through newspaper controversy, but I cannot stand idly by and be falsely accused and misrepresented. Therefore I demand Mr. Democrat's authority, as he says he has been "credibly informed" as to my unfriendliness and opposition to the Arlington, and Elmonte schools. If I received my education. I also demand that he, claiming to teach principle, have the manhood to come from under cover and publish said authority and sign his own name thereto.

Moreover, I defy Mr. Democrat, or any person, to prove that I have ever, in any way, shown antagonism to said school system, or that, if elected, would not act for the very best interests of the whole city; and further permit me to quote Mr. D. a little law which must displace his ideas. Section 8, Article IX, Constitution of the State of California, says: "No public money shall ever be appropriated for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, or any school not under exclusive control of the officers of the public schools; nor shall any sectarian or denominational doctrine be taught or instructions therein be permitted, directly or indirectly, in any of the common schools of this State." So, now, Mr. Democrat, has my position, which, I am happy to say, is well understood by my many friends, both Republicans and Democrats of all creeds, his false and malicious accusations notwithstanding.

FRANK S. GRAHAM.

Los Angeles, Dec. 4, 1885.

That Is Good.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: We like those constant paragraphs in the TIMES about the right of the people to have a law that shall govern the saloons. Other towns and cities do it; why should not we? The Herald deceives the people on this point. Vote for high license, everybody.

JOHN JONES.

HOBART COLLEGE.

A Sad Disaster—Destruction of the Library by Fire.

GENEVA (N. Y.), NOV. 20, 1885.—Long before the dawn the college was roused by the cry of fire. The fire department of Geneva was reported overtaxed by a fire in the town the night previous. Before the arrival of a sufficient force, the old college building, containing, among other things, its library, was burned. With the aid of brave students we were able to extinguish the flames on Trinity Hall Dormitory. And for this and the fact that not no lives were lost, we give thanks. But the most valuable and indispensable possession of the college, its choice collection of books, representing the toil and sacrifice and care of more than half a century, is swept away. The nearly completed new and long desired fireproof library building stands empty, and with a sadly appealing look. The small insurance which the meager funds of the college enabled will not suffice to rebind and replace but comparatively few volumes, while valuable sets of books are hopelessly broken, and thousands are lost by fire or ruined by water.

Distant as we are from the greatest centers of wealth and influence, still we devoutly trust that there may be those of our own people, or of religious bodies committed to higher education, who will be touched by the tragic fate of the Hobart College Library, and by the crippled condition of faculty and students, deprived of it and of the old College Hall. Those moved to help the college promptly, for the library or other purpose, with contributions of money or books, will kindly address: Alex. L. Chew, Treasurer, or Dr. Hamilton L. Smith, Senior Professor, or E. N. Potter, President, Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y.

Ups and Downs of Oildom.

Bradford, Pa., Era.]

In 1881, at the breaking out of the Alleghany oil field, one Jim Parker struck Richburg with scarcely a penny about his clothes. A week later found him worth $10,000. He had bought a good lease and disposed of it, doing the business with five dollars, which sum he borrowed. He went through with the $10,000 in a comparatively brief time, however, and for the past three years has "buffeted from pillar to post," as the old saying goes. Last week, however, he made another "raise." He landed in Kinzua a few weeks ago, and by some means procured a lease. He then let the drilling of a well by contract. It is said he slept in the derrick and ate his meals from the drillers' pails till last week the well was finished and proved a gusher, and he sold out, realizing $18,000 clear money.

Editor Stead in Prison.

Mr. Stead's appearance in prison is graphically described by the Pall Mall Gazette: "He wore a yellow Glengarry-shaped cap, a loose-fitting short jacket of rough, light yellow material, buttoned at the throat." His boots were large, patched, and must have been uncomfortable. His trousers were loose, baggy, of yellow linen of the duck type, with the government arrow stamped with ink in four different places. He wore a round cloth [illegible] on his "left breast." His diet is [illegible] his dinner being composed of [illegible] and brown bread, and his [illegible]per of "shilly" and [illegible]ly task consists [illegible]um.

PRESS POINTS.

Philadelphia Press: Chicago wants a world's fair. As a permanent circus, Carter Harrison appears to have lost his drawing qualities.

Boston Traveller: Due attention will and ought to be given to the nominations sent to the Senate, but Republican Senators will serve their party as well as country best by careful attention to necessary legislation.

Indianapolis Journal: The slanderous story that General Butler had become a Mugwump probably arose out of the rumor that he is to be an independent candidate for Congress. Independence and Mugwumpery will never be synonymous in his case.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: If Congress will repeal all laws discriminating against silver and against gold and make coinage free, there will be no trouble about dollars of different values. Let us have free coinage for gold and silver and let there be gold and silver certificates.

SANTA BARBARA.

Impressions of a Visitor—Good Words for the City by the Sea.

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 6, 1885.

To our personal friends and others whom it may concern. We have been at this delightful little city long enough to justify us in saying that we are not only pleased but delighted. We have been to many nice and beautiful places in California—Santa Cruz, San Jose, Monterey, Los Angeles and San Diego—and we have a good word to say for all of them, for though differing in some respects from the other, they all possess good, and, to us strangers, many rare qualities, which gratify and delight us. Contrasted with the East and with any other parts of the North visited by us, they are unrivaled, and will give special it is that any part of the world could combine so much that is good. Contrasted with each other, we are compelled to say that this sweet little town and vicinity has no peer that we know of.

Take the town site, sloping gently up from one of the best wharves on the entire coast, to the grand old Mission, no place can be found where natural drainage is more perfect. In an hour after the heaviest rain you can go about all over the town without any inconvenience from mud. Nature has done her best, and generously.

Take the pretty little homes of the families, and those devoted to the comfort of guests, as boarding houses, all over town, and you will find neatness and comfort. Take the hotels, from the Morris House to the Arlington, and if there can be found anything better else where, we do not know it.

The entire sewage system of the Arlington and Ellwood has been improved until it seems impossible to make it better. Let any person of either of those houses examine for himself, and deny it if he can. We have seen nothing to equal it. No sewer gases are possible in those houses. We give this statement of facts for those who contemplate visiting this place. Do not take much stock in the reports of unfriendly rivals. This place is charming, and you will find it so. Come to Santa Barbara, if you want to, and whenever you wish, for in winter or summer you will be pleased. Come when you may, you will find a welcome from every little home and every big one; from the merchant, who has something to sell; from the banker, who will be glad of your exchange on the East; from the fine assortment at Donell's Drug Store between 2 and 4 p. m., at residence, Orange near, below Washington Gardens, from 10 to 12 a. m. oct27

BANNING COLONY.

LOCATION:

Banning, San Bernardino County California, on Line of Southern Pacific Railroad, miles directly East of Los Angeles Railroad running directly through center of tract.

ALTITUDE:

2500 feet above sea level.

WATER:

Absolutely pure, clear and soft, and abundance of it.

ATMOSPHERE:

As near perfect as can be found on the globe.

SOIL.

Rich, deep and adapted to the production of the peach, apricot, pear, apple, nectarine, plum, prune, raspberry, blackberry, strawberry, gooseberry, and the entire grape family, both raisin and wine.

Depot, express and postoffices, store, meat market, good school, fine Union church and the best country hotel on the Pacific coast.

The above are some of the many advantages this colony possesses, and the managers are all reliable business men, and now offer land in this colony for sale to actual settlers, and to those who come to California seeking homes, as well as to those already in the State. We say come and examine land and water, and we will guarantee satisfaction. Stop at the Bryant House and ask for the manager of the Banning Land Company. For terms, etc., address,

ELEGANT ESTATE IN PASADENA

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

THIS PROPERTY IS CENTRALLY SITUATED, UPON THE CORNER OF TWO OF the principal streets. The house is two stories, with a wide veranda on all sides, and a tower in the center; contains ten rooms, with large halls, closets, bath room, etc. A concrete cellar under the whole house. A nice stable, corral, hay sheds, etc. There are 1¼ acres of land under a high state of cultivation, about 300 orange trees, 100 lemons, a large variety of all kinds of deciduous trees and grapes. The trees are all in full bearing, and the fruit is of the choicest varieties. About $1000 worth of fruit will probably be sold from the place this year. A beautiful lime hedge incloses the property. The grounds around the house are nicely laid out, with lawns, shrubbery and flowers of all kinds. An unusually large amount of water goes with the place. Pipes are laid throughout the grounds so that each street can be irrigated by hose. Pasadena, now that the railroad is completed, is practically as near the Northeast as Washington is, being only 30 minutes ride by rail, and road will soon be built in front of this place. This is one of the prettiest and most desirable places in Pasadena, and such an opportunity to secure a lovely home in this charming suburb is rarely offered. Terms reasonable, or will exchange for property in Los Angeles. For further particulars apply to

When you pay rent can you show anything for it at the end of the year? No, sir, not a thing! Take possession of a nice lot—pay your same rents in installments—in a short time you have an elegant lot. John C. Bell, the auctioneer, sells on the West Ross tract a number of lots on corner of Philadelphia and Virgin streets.

Candidate Rees on the Chinese Question.

"As some persons have inquired my views on the Chinese question," said Candidate Rees to a TIMES reporter yesterday, "I think it best to publicly state them. I am fully satisfied that the Chinese form the most undesirable class of immigrants we have. We should be better off to-day if there was not a single Chinaman in Los Angeles, for not to speak of their loathsome habits and pest-breeding quarters, I have always considered that money paid to a Chinaman for labor was actually taken out of the circulation of the country—as much so as if it was thrown into the Pacific ocean. My own experience in employing men is that it is cheaper to pay an intelligent white man $2.50 a day for labor than a Chinaman $1.25. Personally, I do not patronize Chinamen at all. I buy my vegetables of and have my washing done by white persons. Let it be understood, however, that I do not believe in any lawless proceedings. The Chinese here should be protected in their rights. I have worked for years to get Los Angeles street opened through Chinatown, and I am glad to see that the work will now go through quickly. Myself and Breed, the Republican candidate in the Third Ward, have used every exertion to have this important improvement carried out.

A Rural Bobby.

While Mrs. J. A. Tinker, of El Monte, was briefly absent from her house Thursday, tramps went in and helped themselves to the following jewelry: One pair diamond earrings; one diamond ring with "J. A. T., 1884" inside; one amethyst ring with small diamonds in center; one breast-pin with pearl in center, and one earring to match; one chased gold toothpick; one diamond shirt stud; one pair chased gold buttons. The thief wore about a No. 9 shoe, with the left heel run over on left side; wore dark coat and vest and light pants, and was 16 or 18 years old, with a light moustache.

Election of Officers.

At the stated meeting of Signet Chapter, No. 57, R. A. M., Thursday evening, December 3d, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing Masonic year: J. H. Martin, High Priest; T. H. Ward, King; George G. Knox, Scribe; L. C. Goodwin, Treasurer; J. E. S. Bell, Secretary.

County Board of Education.

The County Board of Education met last evening, all present.

The minutes of the two preceding meetings were approved.

Mr. Pierce, chairman of the committee on course of study, reported that the course is completed to the ninth year.

On motion, the course of study was referred back to the committee, to report at the next meeting, the committee to have power to act.

The following certificates were granted: First grades to Alice C. Gray and Alberta Whitney, upon Normal School diplomas of California; High School to Mrs. May L. Chapman, upon educational diploma and satisfactory evidence of proficiency in High School subjects; and special certificate to teach vocal music, to Professor R. L. Kent, upon satisfactory credentials.

The Board adjourned to meet January 4th.

...are some of us just ...

G. BUTLER ROSS.

When candidates for office are wont to go to work in... It is indeed surprising ...here's lots of new folks here ... How very on... ...I know Griffin—and put there, ...s a man to whom our boys and girls ...should look up, a habitual sot? I say, ...good for the TIMES!"

***

A solid East Los Angles property-owner: "There is no danger of George Butler Griffin's getting elected, so far as our side of the river is concerned. We know him just a little too well. A man of his notoriously disreputable habits should never have any public office—surely not one on the Board of Education. If we can't keep any other office clean, we ought to keep that. The Democratic party must have been crazy to make such a disgraceful nomination."

***

A City employé: "Know Geo. Butler Griffin? Well, I don't exactly know him, but I have met him. When I was on the police force I found him at about 10 o'clock one night lying beastly drunk on in the middle of Downey avenue, near the bridge. I picked him up and took him home. He went along very nicely till we got to his house and he was inside his own yard. Then he knew he was safe, and turned on me. He cursed me high and low, called me all the vile and filthy names he could lay his tongue to, and even tried to strike me with his cane. (And even neglected to offer his guest a seat.—ED.) All the neighbors heard him. I was going to get a warrant for him next day, but was dissuaded by his friends. He's no good. It's a disgrace to the Democratic party to name him for Board of Education."

***

A reliable hackman: "How many times have I taken Griffin home drunk? Oh, I can't remember—but a great many. Not lately, though. I don't care for that sort of custom. I've got a good back now, and don't want it smashed up and foujed by such fellows. Besides that, it was too hard to get paid. His friends would generally go along with him to take care of him, but they wouldn't want to pay; and when I'd tackle him next day, he 'didn't remember anything about it'— and I presume he didn't; he was too drunk. Why, he's a regular common gutter sot. He's been fired out of saloons lots of times—been fired right out of Reid's down here. No, it wasn't that he made so much noise, but he was such a bore, wouldn't have any money to pay for the drinks, but wanted to keep drinking all the time. His nomination is a disgrace."

***

A peace-officer: "Drunk? Drunk! Why, everybody knows what 'Col.' Griffin is—a regular low-down drunkard. I saw him myself once at the depot, fuller'n a goat, and trying to shoot everybody on sight. They had to take the pistol away from him. The TIMES isn't telling any news to folks that have lived here long, but those who are new-comers, not acquainted with Griffin, should be warned."

***

A street-car driver: "Oh, yes; I know "Colonel" Griffin. He often rides out with me at night, very full. Generally he is too drunk to be anything but stupid; sometimes he raises Cain until I go back and check him. I was astonished at the gall of nominating him for the Board of Education."

***

An East Side irrigator: "You were just right about that east-side ditch and the boggie that B. Cohn made of it. There was not less than $20,000 sunk in that fool project. The ditch leaked the city's money about as bad as it leaked water. Add the $20,000 that was squandered in the ditch to the $40,000 that went wrong in the tunnel, and you have $60,000. That and something more Cohn's administration cost the city."

GOOD CREDENTIALS

For one of the Republican Candidates.

The TIMES has been shown the following open letters, which relate to Professor George R. Crow, Republican nominee for member of the Board of Education of the city:

STATE OF ILLINOIS EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 6, 1883.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I have for many years been personally and intimately acquainted with Professor George R. Crow, now a resident of Normal, Ill., and formerly a member of the faculty of the Illinois Wesleyan University, at Bloomington, Ill. I know him to be a gentleman of high edification, a teacher of long experience and great success in the Wesleyan University and other colleges and schools with which he has been heretofore connected. He is also prompt, energetic and reliable in business affairs, and a man who is in every way worthy of the trust and confidence of any people with whom he may be associated, or among whom he may live.

I most cordially recommend him to the confidence of all persons with whom he may become acquainted. Very respectfully, JOHN M. HAMILTON, Governor.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY, BLOOMINGTON, Oct. 13, 1883.

To whom it may concern: George R. Crow, M. A., of whom these lines make favorable mention, was Professor of Latin in the Illinois Wesleyan University for ten years. During his term of service the department of Latin was in a prosperous condition, and the steady growth of the University while he was connected therewith, was in part due to his judicious counsel and earnest efforts in its behalf.

Professor Crow is a man of superior natural endowments. These he has greatly strengthened by careful study and rigid self-discipline. He has genius, business qualifications and is, withal, a man of sterling integrity, and decided Christian character.

EAST LOS ANGELES.

Pleasant Entertainment in Campbell's Hall Last Night.

Campbell's Hall, East Los Angeles, was crowded by an appreciative audience last evening, the occasion being a select musical and literary entertainment by some of our best local talent. Madam Dudley, recently a professor of the great musical college at Clifton, England, made her debut before a Los Angeles audience, and created an extremely favorable impression. She seems destined to prove a valuable accession to musical circles here. Miss Lillian Fellows, who is popular with Angelenio audiences, lent her voice to the occasion. Samuel Rees, Republican candidate for Council from the Second Ward, sang and pleased everyone. His voice is powerful, resonant and sympathetic. C B Rogers made a decided hit by his intelligent elocution. In fact the whole list was excellent. Following is the programme:

PART I.

Pianoforte Solo. Selection from Faust.
Gounod.....Madam Dudley
Song.....Mr. Samuel Rees
Part Song.....
Reading.....C. B. Rogers
Song. "Thine Eyes So Blue."

Recitation. Selection from Mrs. Candle's Curtain Lectures.....
Douglas Jerrold.....Miss V. Niedt
Duet. "One Word." Nicolai.....
Miss Lillian Fellows, Miss Lockhart
Pianoforte Duet. Qui-Vi-La.....
Sidney Smith....Madam Dudley and Miss Popplewell.
Song. "White Squall".....George Mannoe
Part Song.....
Accompanist, Miss Lant.

NEIGHBORHOOD

COVINA.

"NOW LUSH AND LUSTY GROWS THE GRASS; HOW GREEN!"

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

COVINA, Dec. 3.—The late rains have been the means of transforming the face of the country from a dull gray to a bright green color, and made birds, beasts and man alike to rejoice. How wonderful is the change wrought in the appearance of the landscape in two short weeks after a copious rainfall in this southern country. Our Eastern friends would not believe us were we to affirm the truth on our integrity, but nevertheless it is a fact that within thirty-six hours after the rain begins to fall, the germs of the grass seeds burst their cells and the tender shoots make their appearance through the soil. Can this be said of any other country under the sun?

The Development Company has been hindered some in prosecuting their work on their reservoir and ditches, but for a week past they have been working a large force of hands and considerable ditch has been cemented. It is their intention to push the work to as early a completion as the immensity of the job will permit, stopping for nothing but unfavorable weather.

R. M. Anthony, of Oakland, has been sojourning at Covina for a few weeks, and expresses himself as well pleased with our beautiful surroundings and healthful locality. Mr. Anthony is a guest of M. Baldridge, of Citrus-Cove nursery.

John R. McCoy, of Covina, had the misfortune to step off an embankment while at Temecula a few days ago, which resulted in breaking his leg. Mr. McCoy being an old man, it is not probable that he will ever get entirely over the accident.

J. S. Phillips has let the contract for grading the streets and avenues of his tract, including all the streets of Covina. The people of this place stand ready to give Mr. P. a vote of tanks when the job is done.

Hundreds of gang-plows are running in the valley, putting in vast fields of grain.

CAUTION.—Do not confound the EXCELSIOR Wrapper with other so-called fruit wrappers which do not possess any absorptive power. 2sddwtfm

THE LOS ANGELES BARGAIN HOUSE.
37 South Spring Street.

We invite you to come in and see what we have got; We may have some things that others have not. Of course we have dolls and all kinds of toys To please the girls and tickle the boys.

Besides all these we have many things more, Which you can see by stepping inside the door. We have beautiful things in china and glass; Some you see in the window as the store you pass.

We have novelties of all kinds to please eye and purse; You might go further and fare much worse. There are so many things to speak about, To mention them all would soon tire you out.

So we'll say they were bought for the holiday trade, And on them a SLAUGHTERING price will be made. Our prices are DOWN, AWAY DOWN, out of sight, To sell them so low does hardly seem right.

But we have got the goods and they have got to go, On that account we have made the prices LOW. So when you presents you buy, be they great or small, Remember our place and our prices and give us a call.

So come early and often, and all your friends bring, To the Los Angeles Bargain House, 37 South Spring. no29

DR. M. HILTON WILLIAMS,

Specialist in all the various diseases of the
HEAD, THROAT AND CHEST
275 N. MAIN ST.,
Next Diamond House, Los Angeles, Cal.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated on new and successful principles, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood and nervous system, etc.

CONSUMPTION.

The earlier symptoms of this disease are a sense of weakness, pain in the chest, indisposition to remain passive and ill at ease, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effects of cold and a shortness of breath upon moving quickly, or ascending a hill or stairs, a slight hacking cough, with or without expectoration, dying pains throughout the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are frequently attended with a slight chill or fever in the afternoon, cold feet and hands, and in many cases there is redity of the lips and roots of the finger nails.

The more advanced symptoms are wasting of flesh, night sweats and fever, night sweats, expectorations of yellow pus from the lungs, sometimes streaked with blood, without a depression of the chest, increasing weakness, and at last a closing up of the air cells and consumption. Any consultation by letter or suffocation of the patient for want of air, or expectoration of the mucous from the lungs.

Heretofore the treatment of consumption has been very unsatisfactory, both alike to the physicians and their patients, but luckily for the afflicted the discovery of the Brain system of practice a few years ago, thousands of cases have been completely cured, where had it not been for this system of treatment, there would be no chance to combat the evils of the disease would have continued to the fatal termination. Judicious treating by this system of practice can see the remedy at home as well as at our office, and the cure will come with as little exposure or hindrance to business whatever. The worst forms of consumption cases can be radically cured.

Consultation free and price within the reach of all.

Those who desire to consult me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally, may write for "List of Questions" and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge. Address
